

INEPS NEWSLETTER

AUGUST 2004

Volume 3 Number 8

INTERNATIONAL NETWORK OF PRODUCTIVE SCHOOLS ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

THE 8TH ANNUAL - INTERNATIONAL BRIDGES NEW YORK CITY PUBLIC SCHOOL STUDENT HUMAN RIGHTS DAY HELD AT THE UNITED NATIONS

On Wednesday, May 26th International Bridges cosponsored by the National Academy of Alternative Education and the the International Network of Productive Schools sponsored a Human Rights Day celebration at the United Nations. The theme of the day was The Neighborhood Project: New York City Youth Taking Responsibility. 175 students from more than 14 schools attended the program. Various organizations participated including; City University of New York, Children's Environment Research Group, the Economic Development Council, the Sustainability Education Center, YM/YWCA and the City Hall Academy. Entertainment was provided by the Ella Baker Players and the Brooklyn Family Theater. The highlight of the program were student presentations of various projects conducted during the year.

GOOD NEWS FROM NEW YORK CITY

Alan Schulman and the Bridges Project have been retained by the Department of Education to continue their programs and projects.

INTERNATIONAL BRIDGES HOSTS NIGERIAN STUDENTS

NEW PUBLICATIONS

These are some recent publications about Productive Learning

Produktives Lernen - von der Tätigkeit zur Bildung

Ein Beitrag zur Schulreform in der Sekundarstufe I

IPE's 1st International Seminar
PRODUCTIVE LEARNING - A METHOD TO FULFILL THE EDUCATIONAL NEEDS OF YOUTH IN EUROPE AND THE USA

19th - 26th October 2002,
Milan, Italy

2004

African students being greeted by Alan Schulman of International Bridges

12 students from Corona High School in Lagos, Nigeria arrived in New York City in an exchange visit with the East New York Family Academy. The trip was coordinated by Eben Amu of the Family Academy. It was part of the International Bridges - Bridges to Africa - Nigeria Project which is now in its second year. As a result of a generous grant from the American Field Service American students will spend a month in Lagos next April.

We hope you all enjoyed a restful and enjoyable summer holiday. ...

BUT DON'T FORGET WE NEED INFORMATION ON
WHAT YOU ARE DOING FOR THE INEPS NEWSLETTER.