

NEWSLETTER

SEPTEMBER 2004 Volume 3 Number 9

INTERNATIONAL NETWORK OF PRODUCTIVE SCHOOLS

ANNOUNCING IPLE'S 16th INTERNATIONAL SEMINAR

"PRODUCTIVE LEARNING--THE NEW ROLE AND COMPETENCIES OF PL EDUCATORS" in co-operation with OPEKO and MY OWN CAREER (Finland)

November 27 to December 03 in Heinola and Helsinki (Finland)

The Institute of Productive Learning (IPLE) is holding its 16th International Seminar in Heinola, Finland from November 27th thru December 3, 2004. Workshops which will be facilitated by Productive Learning (PL) Educators from Germany, Finland and Sweden will include:

- The New Professional understanding of oneself as a PL Educator
- From Being an Instructor to Being an Educational Counselor
- From Being a Subject Teacher to Being an Individual Curriculum Developer
- From Being a Lesson Reader to Being a Communication Group Facilitator
- From Being the Lord of the Classroom to Being a Community Educator and Project Developer

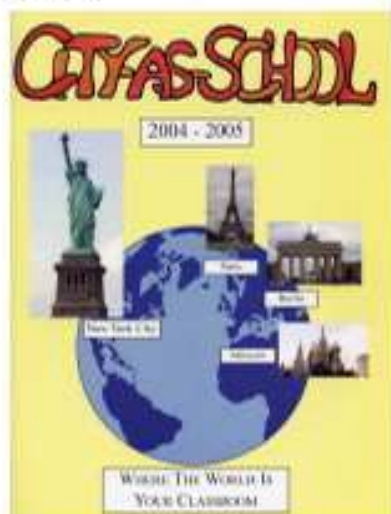

For more information please contact IPLE at iple@sonett.asfh-berlin.de.

EDITORIAL

We wish to welcome everyone back from their summer holidays and hope that the educational year has gotten off to a good start. We also hope that you will use the INEPS Newsletter to share your experiences with all of us. Without your contributions there will be no Newsletter. We look forward to hearing from all of you this year.

NEWS FROM ALL OVER:

The cover of the new City As School (New York City) Catalog features it as a role model for the world. Christine Heike, formerly of the Stadt Als Schule (Berlin) who now works at CAS was responsible for the cover.

2005 INEPS YOUTH CONGRESS TO BE HELD IN NEW YORK CITY IN THE FALL (OCTOBER)

Alan Schulman announced that the New York City Department of Education has approved the holding of the 2005 INEPS Youth Congress in New York City. The theme of the Congress will be "Genuine Youth Participation and Influence in School and Community (Neighborhood)". More news will be forthcoming as the year progresses.

LITTLE JOE

by Juha Lahtinen