

NEWSLETTER

APRIL 2005

Volume 5 Number 4

INTERNATIONAL NETWORK OF PRODUCTIVE SCHOOLS ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

FINNISH STUDENTS MAKE A STUDY VISIT TO THE FOGELSTROMSKA SCHOOL IN STOCKHOLM IN FEBRUARY 2005

Hassan from Jyvaskyla, Finland, came to Stockholm, Sweden, with five Afghan students to visit the students at Fogelstromska in Stockholm. The visit was funded by the European Refugee Fund. The visit was joyful and the Finnish and the Swedish students had great fun together.

17th Congress of the International Network of Productive Schools (INEPS)

April 23-29, 2005

Moscow

Schedule of Events

Saturday, April 23 Arrival of the participants. Check in the hotel.

Evening cultural program.

Sunday, April 24 Plenary section: primary key reports and discussion.

IPLE Round table "Productive learning – a way for democratic education".

Internet-conference

Place: the RAE Presidium

Monday, April 25 Sections' work:

1. Productive learning, education democratization, and students' social activity. How to achieve them.

2. Individual educational projects and self-determination.

3. Students' and educators' interaction, and liberalization for educational spaces.

Places: Moscow Teacher's House, "Eureka"

Continuation of Internet-conference (in Pedagogical Library)

Tuesday, April 26 Moscow visits:

1. Seminar and Round table "Productive learning organization and democratic style of school life" – Moscow School of Self-Determination and Democratic Schools' Association.

2. Seminar "The practice of social-professional self-determination (development of PL on the base of MUK)" – MUK "Hamovniki."

3. Seminar "Providing of PL in profile school: students' professional trials" – Moscow suburb (small town):

Wednesday, April 27 Cultural programs: "Iasnaja Poliana" (Tolstoj) or antic Russian town

Thursday, April 28 Plenary section: discussion of results sections' work, seminars, round tables, school visits,

Internet-conference, and summing up congress work. Briefing.

Evening Cultural program

Friday, April 29 Departure of the participants

