

NEWSLETTER

APRIL 2007

Volume 7 Number 4

INTERNATIONAL NETWORK OF PRODUCTIVE SCHOOLS ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

QUESTIONNAIRE ON MINORITY RELATIONS

Enclosed are a list of questions to think about and answer before you come to the Pecs Congress later this month. We know that some are very controversial and sensitive, but they involve probably the most important issue for Europe in the 21st Century.

Your community:

1. What are the minorities (and immigrants) in your community (town and/or city)?
 - a. What are their percentages?
 - b. How much have they increased in the last 5 years?

Your School:

1. What are the minority (and immigrant) students in your school?
 - a. What are their percentages?
 - b. How much have they increased in the last 5 years?
2. What are the minority (and immigrant) staff in your school?
 - a. What are their percentages?
 - b. How much have they increased in the last 5 years?
3. If there is a difference in numbers between 1 and 2 how do you explain the disparity between students and staff in representation?

Society as a whole:

1. How would you define your society?
Integrated multicultural mixed
2. What is the process for citizenship in your country?
 - a. How does it compare with the other European countries?
3. What minority role models exist in your society?
 - a. In sports
 - b. In politics (Are there any elected officials in government?)
 - c. In entertainment (singers, actors, etc.)
 - d. In the media (Newscasters, reporters, show hosts, etc.)

Personal:

1. How many minority friends or acquaintances do you personally have?
2. How would you rate your knowledge about Islam or the other minorities in your community?
 - a. Very knowledgeable
 - b. Somewhat knowledgeable
 - c. Little knowledge
3. Where do you get your facts and ideas about these minorities from?

From your perspective given your answers what do you feel needs to be done to improve or change the situation that now exists in your country and Europe as a whole?

