City As School:

- The Working Truth Collective, a group City-As School Student “Artist,” worked overtime to release: The Pulse of Truth: A Poetic Compilation (<https://vimeo.com/170560455>). Through performance, writing and poetry techniques The Working Truth Collective explored the intersections of our stories to unearth our humanity.

School team ran over 20 simultaneous multi-day trips for 600+ students

Second annual Mentors Learning Exchange with 200+ mentors to engage with other mentors and to connect over tools, strategies and resources

- This year, City-As-School received the highest possible rating across all five categories today on our School Quality Review. We had the head of the Quality Review Office doing the rating and this is the highest rating given out this year! Over the last three years about 3% of schools across the City have received this rating
